

Theatre Intensive for Young Performers

with Guest Artist Missoula Children's Theatre

Can you imagine your young performer onstage in a classic fairy tale? If so, secure a spot for your student to participate in the Spring Intensive with Missoula Children's Theatre who will present their twist on Sleeping Beauty in Carlsbad!

This week-long program begins with an audition day and culminates in two public performances. A set, lights, costumes, props and makeup are provided, along with everything it takes to put on a play. Forty-three beginner to experienced students, ages 7-14, will be cast and well-rehearsed throughout the week, learning lines, songs and choreography to performing in a musical.
