

Information on the Existing and Proposed Electrical Buildings

The proposed electrical building is a prefabricated structure to remain consistent with the recently built electrical building, with similar architectural and color treatment as the existing building, shown below. (Note: This is provided for information only. As the staff report describes, the proposed electrical building is subject to administrative, not Planning Commission, approval due to its Public Utilities zoning.)

EXISTING (PHASE 1) ELECTRICAL BUILDING