

Dec 20

Born in Anaheim in 1933
My folks had a grocery store in La Jolla, a small community next to Placentia Ca. My dad was transferred to Escondido to manage a grocery store for the 3-company store Laverne, Anaheim and Escondido.
When my dad's friends wife got sick they had to relocate to Yuma Arizona and so my dad was left to manage Carlsbad store. I was 9 years old when we came to Carlsbad. I helped run the small grocery store when our youngest brother got sick. My sister Opelia Escobedo, Francis and I ran the market ~~store~~ Francis worked at California First Bank. My son Henry and daughter Dee now run the store along with my sister's daughter, Socorro. Lolis is 3rd generation now.
