Dear Carlsbad City Council,

I would like to express our concern about the Palomar Airport expanding, and at Tuesday's meeting to please:

- Approve the Resolution presented with an expedited timeline to complete the General Plan Amendments and Zoning Updates by the end of this year, 2024.
- Include directions to define "Airport Expansion" using the California State legal definitions in our City Code.
- Acknowledge in the Resolution per the Annexation Agreement and Court ruling in C4FA v. County of San Diego, the County of San Diego, the County of San Diego voluntarily waived all their immunities regarding land use at McClellan Palomar Airport.

During the 7+ years we have lived here the air traffic, both planes and helicopters, has gotten busier and we hope that the Council will take into consideration that this area is very densely populated and the airport should not grow any larger.

I am sorry that we could not attend the meeting in person, but due to some medical issues we wanted to convey our thoughts. Thank you.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Council:

As a 30 year resident of this fantastic community, I am asking you to help maintain Carlsbad's sense of safety on the ground AND in the sky above. Please,

- Approve the Resolution presented with an expedited timeline to complete the General Plan Amendments and Zoning Updates by the end of this year, 2024.
- Include directions to define "Airport Expansion" using the California State legal definitions in our City Code.
- Acknowledge in the Resolution per the Annexation Agreement and Court ruling in C4FA v. County of San Diego, the County of San Diego, the County of San Diego voluntarily waived all their immunities regarding land use at McClellan Palomar Airport.

In 1978, when the City of Carlsbad annexed Palomar Airport, the City required final authority on all things land use at Palomar Airport. Over the years, the County plodded along as though they were the final decision makers, and sadly, in the past, the City of Carlsbad let them. C4FA sued the County of San Diego over the County's 2018 plans to expand Palomar Airport. We won. The plans were rescinded by Court order.

In the legally binding order, the Court states:

“The County voluntarily waived its immunities” and “the County voluntarily and intentionally relinquished its immunities with respect to the airport”.

Respectfully,

Honorable Mayor, City Council and City Attorney,

I am a longtime Carlsbad resident writing to request that the council takes the following actions:

- Include directions to define “Airport Expansion” in our City Code using the California State legal definitions.
- Acknowledge in the Resolution per the Annexation Agreement and Court ruling in C4FA v. County of San Diego, that the County of San Diego voluntarily waived all their immunities regarding land use at McClellan Palomar Airport.

These actions will help ensure that Carlsbad asserts its rightful controls over Palomar Airport.
