Executive Summary

The General Plan and Housing Element Annual Progress Report (Exhibit 1) is a state required informational report prepared each year that is sent to various state agencies showing the city's progress in implementing its General Plan. Virtually all the annual reporting requirements focus on the city's status in meeting its share of regional housing production goals and implementing the various housing programs specified in the 2021-2029 Housing Element, which is one of the nine elements of the city's General Plan.

The city has initiated or completed those housing programs with identified 2023 timeframes, as appropriate, and continues to make progress in completing the remaining programs. As reflected in the report, the city finds that it remains in compliance with its 2021-2029 state-certified Housing Element.

California Government Code Section 65400(a)(2) requires the City Council to consider the General Plan and Housing Element Annual Progress Report at a public meeting and to submit the report to the state by April 1st each year. The City Council approved the report on March 19, 2024, and it is being presented to the Housing Commission for informational purposes and no action is required.

Explanation & Analysis

Background

City decision-makers rely on the General Plan for making decisions about land use and providing public facilities such as roads, parks, and fire stations. It is also a policy document that guides decisions related to protecting, enhancing and providing those things the community values most, such as open space, habitat conservation, beach preservation, arts and community character. All cities and counties in California are required by law to have a General Plan.

The Housing Element is a state-mandated part of the city's General Plan. Under the law, it has two main purposes:

- To provide an assessment of both current and future housing needs for the city and constraints in meeting these needs.
- To provide a strategy that establishes housing goals, policies, and programs.

Statutory Requirements

The attached annual report has been prepared to fulfill the reporting requirements of the state (Government Code Section 65400(a)(2)) and the city's 2021-2029 Housing Element (Program 2.16). This is the third report that was sent to the California Department of Housing & Community Development, the Governor's Office of Planning & Research and the San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) describing the status of the city's implementation of its General Plan, and more significantly, its 2021-2029 Housing Element.

Report Structure

The contents of the annual report, including items that are required under state law, are structured as follows:

General Plan

The General Plan component of the report provides information on projects and activities undertaken by the city in 2023 that are in alignment with, and help realize the vision of, the General Plan which was last comprehensively updated in 2015. The report organizes these activities under three categories.

- Updates to the General Plan
- General Plan implementation actions
- Customer service activities

Housing Element

Most of the report focuses on housing entitlements – that is, the city's approval of proposed developments – and housing production efforts, as well as the status on the development and implementation of the various housing related programs and activities that are included in the Housing Element. The following items are required under state law and found in the report and its appendices:

- Housing development applications submitted
- Annual building activity report (newly entitled, permitted and constructed units)
- Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) progress. This is the process through which the state, through SANDAG, our regional association of governments, tells cities how many housing units they must plan for to accommodate people of varying income levels.
- Program implementation status, as required by Government Code Section 65583
- Housing units constructed, as required by Government Code Section 65852.21
- Applications for single-family home lot splits, as required by Government Code Section 66411.7 (Senate Bill 9)¹

¹ Senate Bill 9 (2021) was intended to increase the state's housing supply by making it easier to apply for lot splits and two-unit development.

- Local Early Action Planning grant reporting. This state program provides grants and technical assistance to local governments for the preparation and adoption of planning documents, and process improvements that accelerate housing production or to comply with the housing needs assessment.

Other Report Highlights

The comprehensive report includes information of the city’s efforts to provide its share of housing. The report’s highlights include:

Housing Element Rezone Program and Public Safety Element Update

In accordance with state law and the actions outlined under Housing Element Program 1.1 - Provide Adequate Sites to Accommodate the RHNA, staff-initiated amendments to the Carlsbad Municipal Code, Zoning Ordinance, General Plan, Local Coastal Program (the planning document for the Coastal Zone) and other planning documents. These amendments make necessary updates to the city’s plans to accommodate multi-family housing at the density and quantities deemed necessary by the city’s Regional Housing Needs Allocation. This was achieved by identifying suitable sites for multi-family housing and rezoning the properties to a compatible zoning designation.

The proposed rezoning program was presented to the Planning Commission on Oct. 18, 2023, and to the Housing Commission on Dec. 14, 2023. The commissions considered the proposal and, after hearing public comments, voted to recommend its approval to the City Council. Although just beyond the reporting period of calendar year 2023, at its Jan. 30, 2024, hearing, the City Council approved a General Plan amendment, rezoning and certified a program environmental impact report that provides zoning capacity for 3,447 units of at the lower and moderate-income levels spread across 16 sites throughout the city.

Increase in Home Production

The city issued 640 building permits during the 2023 calendar year, for new housing units that will be available to a variety of income categories. As shown in the table below, this represents a 412% increase in the total number of building permits issued in calendar year 2022. The increase in building permit activity is largely attributed to three projects: Marja Acres (47 permits), Pacific Wind (87 permits), and Aviara Apartments (329 permits).

Building Permits Issued

Objective Design Standards for Multifamily Housing and Mixed-Use Development

On Aug. 29, 2023, the City Council approved amendments to the Carlsbad Municipal Code, Local Coastal Program, and Village & Barrio Master Plan that allowed for the adoption of the regulatory framework for objective design standards for properties throughout the city, and specifically in the Village and Barrio area. The adoption of objective design standards satisfied the requirements of state Senate Bills 35, 167, and 330² and allowed for the implementation of Housing Element Program 1.11 - Objective Design Standards. The objective design standards are intended to streamline project review and outline clear regulations that planned development must adhere to.

Encouraging Development of Accessory Dwelling Units

Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs)³ are an essential component of the state’s housing supply and provide an alternative option to traditional market-rate home construction. Over the past several years, the state legislature has passed several laws making it easier for property owners to build ADUs and the Housing and Community Development Department encourages cities to create local allowances to encourage ADU development. On May 23, 2023, the City Council adopted amendments to the Carlsbad Municipal Code and Local Coastal Program and received a presentation on a new permit-ready ADU program that increases the feasibility of ADUs:

- The City Council approved an amendment to the Carlsbad Municipal Code and Local Coastal Program updating the city’s regulatory requirements for ADUs and Junior ADUs. The approved amendments brought the city into compliance with the new provisions adopted under Assembly Bill 2221 and Senate Bill 897. The amendments consisted of code updates to increase maximum heights from 16 feet to 18 feet for detached ADUs and to 25 feet for attached ADUs; provide parking exemptions for ADUs near transit/carshare locations, in historic districts, and where there are on-street parking restrictions; include permit issuance time maximums; and allow ADUs to encroach into front-yard setbacks when infeasible in rear or side yards.
- The City Council was presented a new permit-ready ADU program that provides applicants with pre-approved plans for ADUs. Applicants making use of the pre-approved ADU plans are estimated to save three to six months of floorplan development time and potentially $8,000-$16,000 in design fees leading up to application submittal. This item was initiated in response to new state laws and in accordance with Housing Element Program 1.2 - Promote the Development of Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs). Staff conducted public outreach sessions and collected surveys prior to developing plans for a range of ADU types, including studio, one-bedroom, two-bedroom and three-bedroom floor plans with sizes ranging from 400 square feet to 1,000 square feet. The permit-ready ADU floorplans are available in three architectural styles that complement existing architectural styles throughout Carlsbad, including Modern/Contemporary, Spanish, and Farmhouse/Craftsman. In addition to the program plans, staff also developed a new streamlined ADU application, which included user-friendly permit application materials to guide applicants through the review process.

² Senate Bill 35 (2017) established a streamlined local approval process for affordable housing. SB 167 (2017) and SB 330 (2019) removed regulatory hurdles to streamline housing development that is consistent with existing density allowances.

³ ADUs can be integrated into existing or proposed homes in a variety of ways, including converting a portion of an existing house, adding to the existing house, converting an existing garage, storage area, studio or other accessory building, or constructing a new detached structure on the property.

At the May 23, 2023, City Council informational presentation, the City Council approved a minute motion directing staff to return within one year with information on the interest in and utilization of the permit-ready ADU program, including any recommended adjustments to the program. Staff prepared a City Council Memorandum, posted May 23, 2024, detailing staff's response to the five requested items approved in the minute motion. To date, staff have received one building permit application using the permit-ready ADU plans, however, the program maintains consistent interest based on the number of inquiries staff receive on average in a given week.

Also included with this staff report is a description of the terms and methods used in the report (Exhibit 2), which provides additional information about the Regional Housing Needs Allocation and the housing income levels.

The General Plan and Housing Element Annual Progress Report for 2023 was accepted by the Carlsbad City Council at its hearing on March 19, 2024, and the report was submitted to the California Department of Housing and Community Development, the Governor's Office of Planning and Research, and the San Diego Association of Governments on March 27, 2024, in advance of the April 1, 2024, submittal deadline. It is being presented to the Housing Commission for informational purposes and no action is required.

Environmental Evaluation

The City Planner, through the process outlined in the Carlsbad Municipal Code relating to Environmental Protection (Section 19.04.070), has determined this report is categorically exempt from environmental review under California Environmental Quality Act Guidelines Section 15306, which states that information collection activities are exempt from the provisions of the act. The City Planner's determination was published on Feb. 8, 2024, and no appeal to that determination was filed.

CITY OF CARLSBAD GENERAL PLAN AND HOUSING ELEMENT ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT FOR CALENDAR YEAR 2023

INTRODUCTION

California Government Code Section 65400 requires all cities and counties within the state to submit an annual report regarding the status of the General Plan and progress of its implementation. A special focus of the annual report is the local jurisdiction's progress in meeting its share of regional housing needs, as defined by state law and as addressed in the jurisdiction's general plan housing element.

The purpose of the annual progress report is to provide information to the public, local decision makers, and state agencies – primarily the Governor's Office of Planning and Research and the State Department of Housing and Community Development. This information can be used to track progress in meeting local and state goals and to adjust the methods being used to meet those goals, as needed. The report is also shared with the San Diego Association of Governments for use in regional population forecasts and estimates.

California Government Code 65400 details the information that must be contained within the annual progress report, although there is no prescribed format, sequence, or length for the report¹. The annual progress report reviews activity related to the general plan within the preceding calendar year and must be submitted to the state by April 1 of the following year. As such, this annual progress report is for the time period of January 1, 2023, through December 31, 2023.

The City of Carlsbad's General Plan was last comprehensively updated in 2015 and utilized the vision and core values established in the preceding Envision Carlsbad effort to guide the development of the plan's goals and policies. Although nine core values were identified as a part of this process, several overlapped in terms of analysis and implementation. As such, six consolidated groupings are used in this report as the organizing framework for reviewing the General Plan implementation activities for the past year. These groupings include:

1. Sustainability
2. The Local Economy, Business Diversity and Tourism
3. Open Space and the Natural Environment; Access to Recreation and Active, Healthy Lifestyles
4. History, the Arts and Cultural Resources; High Quality Education and Community Services
5. Walking, Biking, Public Transportation and Connectivity

6. Small Town Feel, Beach Community Character and Connectedness; Neighborhood Revitalization, Community Design and Livability

The City of Carlsbad also currently provides multiple stand-alone annual reports on topics related to the General Plan separately from the General Plan-Housing Element Annual Progress Report. The Office of Planning and Research acknowledges this dynamic in many jurisdictions and encourages “General Plan implementation to be discussed in the larger context of the jurisdiction’s overall programs and activities”¹.

GENERAL PLAN IMPLEMENTATION ACTIONS

General plans are comprehensive in nature and govern actions relating to the physical development of the city. General plans are long-range planning documents and, as such, the time horizon for the 2015 General Plan is 2035 and includes actions that will be completed in short-, mid-, and long-term timeframes or are on-going activities. Below is a discussion of activities and accomplishments related to the General Plan and its core values and elements that occurred in 2023.

Concurrent Implementation of Multiple Core Values

Carlsbad's Growth Management Program was adopted in 1986 as a way to ensure that new development provided its fair share of infrastructure and services in order to maintain the community's quality of life. As such, the plan includes performance standards for 11 public facilities, including libraries, parks, circulation, and water distribution facilities.

Pursuant to California Senate Bill 166 (2017), the adopted Growth Management Program is required to change its enforcement mechanism for failure to comply with the required performance standards (i.e., the city can no longer impose a moratorium on residential development if a public facility standard is not met). For this reason, and to provide an update to a program that is reaching close to 40 years in age, the city initiated a Growth Management Program Update process in 2022. This effort included the City Council appointed Carlsbad Tomorrow Growth Management Citizens Committee which met 15 times between March 2022 and April 2023 and discussed and made recommendations for each of the existing Growth Management Program's 11 public facility "performance standards," as well as other topics important to maintaining Carlsbad's quality of life. The committee's recommendations were presented to the City Council in July 2023. In Spring 2024, staff will return to City Council with a work plan identifying next steps to implement the committee's recommendations.

Sustainability

General Plan core values related to sustainability cross all General Plan elements, but as listed in the Sustainability Element, focus primarily on reducing greenhouse gases; water conservation, recycling and supply; efficient building standards and practices; sustainable energy; and sustainable food. The primary companion document to the General Plan in terms of sustainability is the city's Climate Action Plan. Implementation of the Climate Action Plan is specifically referenced in Sustainability Element Policy 9-P.1: Enforce the Climate Action Plan as the city's strategy to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Implementation actions that occurred during the reporting period include:

- Staff continued to implement the adopted Climate Action Plan. The sixth Climate Action Plan Annual Report (covering implementation from January 1, 2022-December 31, 22) was presented to the City Council on May 9, 2023.
- Staff continued a comprehensive update to the Climate Action Plan. Primary activities in 2023 included preparing a 2016 greenhouse gas inventory, preparing preliminary reduction measures, sharing the preliminary measures with the public, updating the City Council on November 7, 2023, reviewing the public input received, and updating the preliminary measures based on input from the public and City Council.
- Following a minute motion made at the April 19, 2022, City Council meeting directing staff to "research options to add an ordinance to address electrification in new buildings in the City of Carlsbad to the next draft of the Climate Action Plan," staff presented options to City Council on May 9, 2023. With the recent Ninth Circuit decision (California Restaurant Association v. City of Berkeley), City Council requested staff to return on July 11, 2023, and September 12, 2023. At the September 12, 2023, meeting, the City Council voted to continue implementation of the city's existing reach code due to the potential legal concerns raised by the Berkley case.
- The Clean Energy Alliance continued operating in Carlsbad. An annual update was presented to the City Council on February 7, 2023.

The Local Economy, Business Diversity, and Tourism

General Plan core values related to the local economy, business diversity, and tourism most directly inform the Economy, Business Diversity, and Tourism Element. The focus of this element includes strengthening the city's role as an economic hub by ensuring fiscal health, carefully managing land use and infrastructure, and promoting business diversity, opportunities, and tourism.

- The city manager presented the Fiscal Year 2023-24 Budget and Capital Improvement Program (Budget) to the City Council for consideration at a hearing on June 13, 2023. The budget includes data on the city's administration, operations, staffing, facilities, projects, and forecasts in the context of the city's five-year strategic plan and fiscal year goals. The city was awarded the Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting for the 30th year in a row by the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada.

- The city continues to work towards the implementation of the City Council five-year strategic plan which outlines policy goals designed to reflect the most important priorities of the community. Program milestones that were achieved during 2023 include the adoption of an updated Homeless Response Plan on February 7, 2023, the formation of a community-police engagement commission, and the adoption of an economic development strategic plan on January 10, 2023.

Open Space and Active Lifestyles

General Plan core values related to open space and active lifestyles most directly inform the Open Space, Conservation, and Recreation Element. The focus of the element includes the open space framework; biological resources; beaches, parks, and recreation; trails and greenways; agricultural resources; air quality; and water quality.

1	2	3	4
Name of Program	Objective	Timeframe in H.E	Status of Program Implementation
1.2(c) Promote development of ADUs	Create separate city website for ADUs; provide step by step guide to necessary applications and information.	Dec-22	This program is complete. A webpage has been created that presently emphasizes development of the ADU permit ready program. An informational bulletin (fact sheet) provides ADU standards and processing steps. 1.2(d) Promote development of ADUs	Continue to work with developers to incorporate ADUs into new single-family developments.	Ongoing	The city is complying with and continues to implement this ongoing program.
1.2(e) Promote development of ADUs	Develop at least four pre-approved ADU Plans that provide a variety in terms of size, type and style.	Apr-23	This program is complete. Staff prepared a variety of four pre-approved ADU plans and presented to Planning Commission on March 15, 2023 and to City Council on May 23, 2023. The plans are available at: https://www.carlsbadca.gov/departments/community-development/planning/adu-permit-ready-program
1.2(f) Promote development of ADUs	Monitor ADU production and affordability on an annual basis to ensure that ADUs are used to satisfy the lower- and moderate-income housing targets.	Annually	The city is complying and continues to implement this ongoing program. In 2023, building permits were issued for 82 accessory dwelling units. These units are considered to be affordable to moderate-income households. (Note: This table reports issued permits for accessory dwelling units, which may be different than numbers that appear in Table A-2 for finalized permits.)
1.3(a & f) Alternative Housing	Continue to monitor underutilized properties and sites in the community that have potential for alternative housing options and offer the information to interested developers. Utilize the Inclusionary Ordinance and Housing Trust Fund to encourage innovative housing structures.	Ongoing	The city is complying and continues to implement with this ongoing program.
1.3(b) Alternative Housing	Rezone underutilized commercial, office, and/or industrial space, as appropriate, to facilitate use for alternative housing types.	April 2024 / Ongoing	This program is complete (accounting for final action by the City Council on January 30, 2024, just beyond the 2023 reporting period which rezoned underutilized commercial, office and industrial space for housing). In addition, passage of Ordinance CS-422 on May 10, 2022, amended the zoning code to allow "horizontal" residential uses in the Neighborhood Commercial, General Commercial, and Local Shopping Center zones.

Housing Programs Progress Report
Describe progress of all programs including local efforts to remove governmental constraints to the maintenance, improvement, and development of housing as identified in the housing element.
1	2	3	4
Name of Program	Objective	Timeframe in H.E	Status of Program Implementation
1.3(c) Alternative Housing	Develop, as part of a zoning ordinance update, measures that encourage affordability by design (e.g., smaller, more efficient and flexibly-design living spaces).	Apr-23	This program is complete. An evaluation was prepared and found the zoning ordinance encourages alternative housing that is affordable by design. The evaluation and findings were presented to the Planning Commission on April 19, 2023.
1.3(d) Alternative Housing	Where appropriate, utilize the city's regulatory powers (e.g., land use and fees) to encourage development of alternative housing.	Apr-23	This program is complete. An evaluation was prepared and documented examples of how the city is utilizing its regulatory powers to encourage the development of alternative housing. The evaluation and findings were presented to the Planning Commission on April 19, 2023.
1.3(e) Alternative Housing	Evaluate and implement, as appropriate, a development fee structure for these units based on a per square foot basis rather than per unit basis.	Apr-23	This program is complete. A 2022 fee update to the inclusionary housing in-lieu program implemented a development fee structure based on square foot rather than unit. Additional analysis identified additional opportunities to structure other development fees to be by square feet vs. unit. The analysis and findings were presented to the Planning Commission on April 19, 2023.
1.3(g) Alternative Housing	Review and amend the Carlsbad Zoning Ordinance to review and amend definitions and allowances of uses for the definition of family, employee housing, residential care facilities, group homes and/or boardinghouses to be consistent with California Law.	Apr-23	This program is complete. As part of Zone Code Amendment 2022-0002 approved Sept. 27, 2022, the city completed some objective components by adding a definition of "small employee housing" (i.e., six or fewer persons), by amending the definition of family to incorporate the same, and by permitting small employee housing in the city's residential zones. In 2023, staff prepared additional zone code amendments to be consistent with California law. The amendments were presented to Planning Commission on April 5, 2023 and to City Council on May 23, 2023.
1.4(a & c) Lot Consolidation	The city will continue to make available an inventory of vacant and underutilized properties, and will market infill and redevelopment opportunities throughout the city (including the Village and Barrio), to interested developers.	Ongoing	The city is complying with and continues to implement this ongoing program.
1.4(b) Lot Consolidation	The city will identify sites where potential consolidation can happen based on current site usage and ownership.	Dec-22	This program is complete. Lot consolidation information can be found here: https://carlsbad.maps.arcgis.com/apps/insant/sidebar/index.html?appid=942535a2da9e44ff887756af41e9af2

1	2	3	4
Name of Program	Objective	Timeframe in H.E	Status of Program Implementation
1.5 Flexibility in Development Standards	Monitor application of Municipal Code standards for constraints to development of new housing and recommend changes to remove such constraints.	Annually	The city is complying and continues to implement with this ongoing program. In 2023, the city evaluated changes to code language to clarify where mixed uses are allowed and scheduled corresponding code changes for 2024. Staff also included code language to allow higher densities and development flexibility as a part of Program 1.1, the rezoning of housing inventory sites, scheduled for 2024.
1.6(a) Development Streamlining	Establish expedited review process for projects exceeding inclusionary requirements.	Jun-22	This program is complete. The city has an application checklist (P-35) that guides applicants through a streamlined review process for projects that provide at least 20% affordable housing (in excess of the city's 15% inclusionary housing ordinance).
1.6(b, c & e) Development Streamlining	Review and amend land use regulations, development standards, permitting procedures, administrative procedures and fees, in order to remove impediments to, and reduce the cost of, affordable residential development. To the extent permitted by State law, use existing environmental documents to limit review of new developments to impacts not considered in the earlier environmental documents.	Ongoing	The city is complying with and implementing this ongoing program. In March 2022, the city amended its inclusionary fee to charge a per square foot versus per unit fee for projects of 2 to 6 units; this may reduce development costs for smaller units and incentivize their construction. The city has developed a robust series of informational bulletins to assist developers, consultants, and the public in understanding the city's process and aid in expediting permits. Examples of bulletins relevant to reduce costs and time include those on accessory dwelling units, building permit submittal requirements for residential uses, inclusionary housing, SB-9, SB-35, and SB-330, and the self-certification program on building inspections. Also, passage of Ordinance CS-422 in May 2022 helped clarify the city's site development plan process and permit "horizontal" mixed use development in many commercial zones.
1.6(d) Development Streamlining	Develop SB35 Application Form and Procedures.	Dec-21	This program is complete. SB 35 Permit Streamline Checklist (P-35) can be found here: https://www.carlsbadca.gov/home/showpublisheddocument/8425/63772762688856278
1.6(f) Development Streamlining	Expand "self-certification" building permit application/inspection options for qualifying projects.	Jun-22	This program is complete with passage of Ordinance CS-422 on May 10, 2022. The city has developed an informational bulletin on the self-certification process, available at https://www.carlsbadca.gov/home/showpublisheddocument/10193
1.6(g) Development Streamlining	Review permit procedures for Site Development Plans, make changes to improve certainty and remove requirements that could reduce density.	Apr-22	This program is completed with passage of Ordinance CS-422 on May 10, 2022.

Description of Terms and Methods

2023 HOUSING ELEMENT ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT

Regional Housing Needs – The determination of housing need for Carlsbad and all other jurisdictions in California is derived from the Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA) prepared by the local regional councils of government (SANDAG) before the beginning of each housing cycle. Based upon these assessments of need, the local jurisdictions are required to adopt housing objectives in the housing elements of their general plans.

A regional assessment of housing need is an estimate of the total need for new housing construction throughout the region due to population growth forecasted to occur during a specific time period. The overall housing need is then broken out by four income groups: very low, low, moderate, and above-moderate (or upper-income) – all as defined by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and the state Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD). The regional housing needs are then allocated to the local jurisdictions on a “regional share” basis, according to models and formulas designed by SANDAG.

Table 1 shows Carlsbad’s share of the current RHNA which applies to the 2021-2029 Housing Element.

Table 1: Carlsbad’s Share of the RHNA
Income Group	Percent of AMI	6 th cycle RHNA 2021-2029* (housing units)
Very Low	50% or under	1,311
Low	51-80%	784
Moderate	81-120%	749
Above-moderate	Over 120%	1,029
Total		3,873
*SANDAG, Final 6 th Cycle Regional Housing Needs determination, 2020

Definition of Income Groups – Table 1 defines each of the four income groups as a percentage of the county area median income (AMI). HUD and HCD annually revise the AMI based on cost-of-living issues such as the relationship of housing prices to income and have established the 2023 AMI for a four-person household in Carlsbad at $116,800¹. In addition to establishing the AMI, HUD also establishes income limits for each of the four income groups which are adjusted for family size so that larger households have higher income limits (see Table 2 below).

Prices of Affordable Housing – Generally, the federal and state rule is that housing is affordable to a given family if the family pays no more than 30% of its monthly income for housing expenses that include the rent or mortgage payment, property taxes, insurance, utilities, and the like. A determination of whether a housing unit is affordable can be easily made for assisted public rental housing and other public housing programs because documentation is maintained on both the individual household’s income and the actual cost of the unit in question (typically rental). Income group determinations for income restricted (assisted) housing units shown in the tables of Part 1 were made by the Carlsbad Housing and Neighborhood Services Department.

To determine affordable housing expenses for rentals, the practice is to set thresholds for each income group, using the 30% rule, with adjustments for the number of bedrooms (See Table 3). An additional adjustment is also made for utility allowance, as required by HUD. Table 4 provides the resulting maximum market rate rental expenses (which include rent and a utility allowance that increases with household size) for the very low, low, and moderate-income groups for CY 2023.

With regard to for-sale housing, there is no federal or state required formula to determine the sales price that would be considered affordable. Varying factors impact mortgage amounts, such as interest rates, closing costs and lending programs. The following assumptions are used to estimate sales prices that are considered affordable to the various income groups.

Area Median Income (AMI)	2023 Annual Income	Affordable Purchase Price (includes PMI)
Very Low (30-50%)	$41,350 to $68,900	$139,170 to $234,192
Low (50-80%)	$68,900 to $110,250	$234,192 to $376,811
Moderate (80-120%)	$110,250 to 140,150	$376,811 to $479,939
Above Moderate (above 120%)	$140,150 or above	$479,939 and above

Methodology:

- 2023 AMI: $116,800 (ranges above use a four person household size)
