

Virtual Carlsbad Reads Together 2021

A COMMUNITY READING PROGRAM

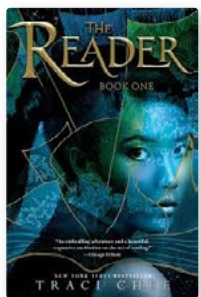

Carlsbad Reads Together brings community members together and engages them in discussion about the same selection of books at the same time. Throughout April 2021, we'll host book discussions, a visit from author Tara Westover, virtual Human Library, youth and teen events and more. Sponsored by Friends of the Carlsbad Library.

About the 2021 Selections

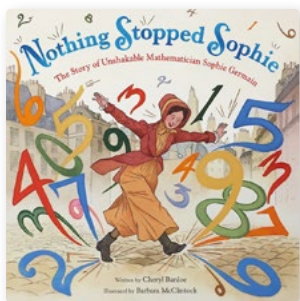

Educated by Tara Westover

Born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho and isolated from mainstream society, Tara Westover was 17 the first time she set foot in a classroom. Lacking a formal education, she began to educate herself. Her quest for knowledge transformed her, taking her over oceans and across continents, to Cambridge, Harvard and beyond.

Young Adult Selection The Reader by Traci Chee

What would you do if no one in the world could read? What if you could read and had no books? Find the answer in Traci Chee's The Reader, the first in the Sea of Ink and Gold trilogy.

Children's Selection Nothing Stopped Sophie by Cheryl Bardoe

The true story of 18th-century mathematician Sophie Germain. When her parents took away her candles to keep her from studying math... nothing stopped Sophie. When male math scholars said a math problem was impossible to solve, she went on to solve the unsolvable to achieve her dream.

About the Authors

Tara Westover

Tara Westover is an American author. Born in Idaho to a father opposed to public education, she never attended school. She spent her days working in her father's junkyard or stewing herbs for her mother, a self-taught herbalist and midwife. Taught to read by an older brother, her education was erratic and incomplete. She was seventeen the first time she set foot in a classroom. After that first encounter with education, she pursued learning for a decade, graduating magna cum laude from Brigham Young University in 2008 and subsequently winning a Gates Cambridge Scholarship. She earned an MPhil from Trinity College, Cambridge in 2009, and in 2010 was a visiting fellow at Harvard University. She returned to Cambridge, where she was awarded a PhD in history in 2014.

Educated is her first book. (tarawestover.com/bio)

Traci Chee

Traci Chee is a New York Times bestselling author of young adult fiction. She has written four books including the Sea of Ink and Gold trilogy, as well as her 2020 award-winning standalone title, We Are Not Free.

Cheryl Bardoe

Cheryl Bardoe is an award-winning author of books for children and young readers. She is also a teacher, questioner and thinker. Her books inspire curiosity and explore the world around us.

Virtual Human Library

Zoom Virtual Event

Saturday, April 24, 1 – 3 p.m.

Registration is required.

To register, visit www.carlsbadca.gov/CRT

The Human Library is a library where real people are the books and reading is a conversation. Living Books (people with a particular life experience or story to tell) are available for you to “check out” for a specific borrowing time period. Every “book” represents a group in our society that is often subjected to prejudice or discrimination because of their lifestyle, diagnosis, belief, disability, social status, ethnic origin, etc. More information about the event is available at www.carlsbadca.gov/CRT.

Discussion Questions

Educated by Tara Westover

1. Tara has titled her book Educated and much of her education takes place in classrooms, lectures or other university environments, but not all. What other important moments of “education” were there? What friends, acquaintances or experiences had the most impact on Tara? What does that imply about what an education is?
2. Westover eventually finds her voice and realizes it’s just as powerful as the people who have influenced her life. What is voice, and how important is it that every child be encouraged to find their own?
3. How does education change Westover’s view of her childhood? How does she come to terms with how she was raised once she knows the value of education?
4. Tara wrote this at the age of 30, while in the midst of her healing process. Why do you think she chose to write it so young, and how does this distinguish the book from similar memoirs?
5. What impact does Westover’s pursuit of formal education have on her parents and family?
6. Ultimately, what type of freedom did education give Tara?
