

Program Application

The City of Carlsbad Citizens Academy is a free, six-week program designed to help Carlsbad residents learn about their city government. Most sessions are held on consecutive Thursday evenings. Each week diverse topics such as Policy & Leadership, Community Services, Public Safety, Administrative Services and Public Works will be presented by experts within the city. Applicant Reminders:

- The Citizens Academy is provided for Carlsbad residents
- Applications and required forms need to be submitted prior to participation
- Accepted applications will receive confirmation of enrollment from city staff
- Applicants need to be 15 years or older
- Substitute attendees are not allowed
